

Company Name	LOCH INSH	 LOCH INSH OUTDOOR CENTRE
Address of Premises	KINCRAIG INVERNESS - SHIRE PH21 1NU TEL: 01540 651272

Task	Tubing 2022/23	Risk Assessment No.	RAB 004
Name of Assessor	J Freshwater	Signature	JF
Assessment Date	18-10-2022	Review Date	18-10-2023

What are the significant hazards?	Who might be harmed and how	What are you already doing	Do you need to do anything else to control the risk?	Action by Who	Action by Date	Completion Date
Injury crossing the road	Staff and visitors at risk of being hit by cars	Briefing given before leaving the building Crossings supervised.	Make sure a responsible adult is supervising	Parents, instructors, or other adults	immediate	14-12-2021
Injury from kit left on slope	Staff and visitors may collide with equipment left on the slope	Safety briefing given prior to activity starting Remove all unnecessary equipment from the slope prior to starting session.	Ensuring all kit is stored correctly when not on session	Instructor.	immediate	14-12-2021

Falling out of tubes, running into other people or hitting barrier with force.	Staff and visitors could get grazing from the ski slope, or injury from colliding with others	Appropriate clothing to be worn. Gloves to be worn when on the slope. Helmets worn when on slope. Descents managed by group leader, a maximum of 6 people sliding at a time. None tubers not allowed on slope, everybody must clear the landing area before next people slide.	Brief all staff - this can vary greatly depending on the weather conditions. Wetter weather will make the tubes go faster. Ensure guests walking back up to the top stay at the edges.	Instructor	immediate	14-12-2021
Loss of control	Staff and visitors could be hit by out of control slope uses	Start heights explained and monitored group leader Proof of ability demonstrated prior to moving higher Strategic positioning of staff to stop runaways	Make sure a trained group leader is present and supervising during all sessions.	instructor	immediate	14-12-2021
Injury to Fingers & thumbs	Staff and visitors at risk from catching finger in the matting	Danger explained to keep hands away from the mat and always hold onto the tube handle	Make sure a trained group leader is present and supervising during all sessions.	instructor	immediate and ongoing	14-12-2021